From the Antwerp Courant, dated March 27.

Presbourg, March 12.

ESTERDAY return'd hither from Vienna the Deputies of the States of Hungary affembled here, and to Day the States had a Conterence with the Prince Palatine touching the Answer which their Deputies have brought from the Emperour. A Juffice of the Town of Szent Miclos, who was convicted of affifting a French Major-General having a Passport from Prince Ragoiski to get safe into that Part of the Country where are the Malecontents, and for that Crime condemn'd to the Gallows, was carrried out to Day to the Place of En cution, when on a sudden appear'd without the Lines of this City, 8 Colours of the Malecontents, who 'twas at first imagin'd were advancing to rescue him; but 'twas soon discover'd, that the indeed they were the Colours of the Male-contents, yet these who had them were Imperialists, and that they were bringing them from Col. Viard, who took them not far from Frenchin nearlitova from from the Enemy, who with a Detachment of Foot and Horse had Invested the Castle of Illova: The said Colours are all new, and belong'd to the Regiment of Revai, which was intirely defeated by the faid Collonel Viard, and every Man of it either kill'd or taken Prifoner, their Horse abandoning them at the Approach of the Imperialifts. The Pilloners are difiributed into Frenchin, Neuftettel, and other Places. On the other Hand, the Malecoments have furpriz'd and raken a Baik of Javarino, laden with Salt and Honey. 'Tis advis d that Count Berezeni has drawn together a ftrong Body of Troops near Doppelichan and having with him heavy Artillery, defigns to Vienna, March 14. General Kriechbaum, who is appointed to command in Fransilvania with the same Commission and sull Power as had General Rabutin, having receiv'd his Instructions, is on his Departure thicker; and all Officers of the Troops in that Principality, and of those in Hungary are order'd to repair forthwith to their Regiments. Associated as General Kriechbaum arrives in Transilvania, General Rabutin will come a way from thence hither. M. Hermelin, Privy Councellor to the King of Sweden, was the Person who writ to the Swedish Secretary, Sernhoeck residing here, that his Swedish Majesty far from seeking occasions of Dispute, was desirous to contract a firm Friendship with the Empe-

out out ngs reree vell of the Treaty of Alt-Randstad; but then he hop'd however, that his Imperial Majetty would not wholly reject his Intercention for the further Execution of Freedom of Religion in Silefia. Prince Maurice of Savoy, Nephew of Prince Eugene, and Son of the Count de Soiffons who was kill'd in the laft Siege of Landau, has fince his arrival here from Italy, had Austence of the Emperour. The Antwer given by the Emperour to the Hangarian Deputies was, that for several Reasons ne thought good to deter going to the Diet of Presbourg, but that he would not fail to repair thither affoon as his Presence might be useful; and that in the mean time he would send Prince Adam of Lichtenstein and Count Traun, as his Commissioners to represent his Person. These Deputies being gone back to Presbourg, we may shortly expect to hear whether Prince Ragotski will grant Paisports to the Deputies design'd to be sent to him by the Diet: 'i is much aoubted; because most of the Malecontents will not hear of a Treaty of Accommodation, much less of revoking their Declaration of an Laterregnum; which however is a necessiry Preliminary to a Negotiation. 'fis faid the King of Denmark has at length contented to let his Troops now in Bavaria serve this Year in Hangary; but would have them continue in their pre-fent Quarters till May, upon which another Ex-press will be sent to Copenhagen. The Chiefs of The Chiefs of the Malecontents give our, that if the Imperialifts besiege Neuneusel, they will bring all their Forces a-gainst this City. 'I'is rumour'd, that assoon as the second Arch-Dutchess, who is to Marry the King of Porrugal, is gone from hence, a Marriage will be publish'd between Prince Eugene and the Eldeft Arch Duichefs.

Vienna, March 17. The Baggage of the Royal Bride of Spain is not yet fet forwards, and 'tis likely the Advices brought by the last Express from Barcelona will retard her Journey: So that 'tis now supposed that she and the Arch-Durchess, who is to Marry the King of Portugal will go together; which will not be yet in some Weeks. In the Action near Illova, the Imperialists under Collonel Viard kill'd 400 Malecontents on the Spot, took 200, and dispers'd the rest. B ron Sirmay has proposed in the Diet at Presbourg that those who come to fit in that Diet should cloath thems lives in the Hungarian Habit, and use no other than the Hungarian Language, on pain of being thrown out of the Windows. The Emperour's Army in Hungary will be made up 30000 Men. The States of Silesia have earnestly intreated Baron Stralenheim, Envoy of the King of Sweden, to desist from his Presentions touching the enlarging
